

The Universal Ledgers
REVOCATION STATEMENT

“I now release every identity, rule, belief, and internal contract that no longer matches who I am becoming.

I revoke the stories that were built from survival, fear, doubt, and limitation.

I revoke the patterns that taught me to expect struggle, scarcity, disappointment, or stagnation.

I revoke the emotional autopilots that kept me repeating experiences I no longer choose.

I thank every part of me that carried these old rules. They were created to protect me, and I honor that. But they no longer define me.

I now dissolve all outdated permissions, loyalties, and energetic agreements that belonged to my former self.

Every old script, every inherited belief, every unconscious contract - released now.

I return my power to myself.
I reclaim authorship over my identity, my future, and my reality.

The old system is complete.
The old operator is now deactivated.

I am free.”
